

From NO MATTER WHAT

This is the story of a small fox who is frightened his mother won't love him forever, but the words are particularly apt when we consider the endless bonds of love between people.

*"Does love wear out" said Small, "does it break or bend?
Can you fix it, stick it, does it mend?"
"Oh help," said Large "I'm not that clever.
I just know I'll love you forever."*

Small said: "But what about when you're dead and gone – would you love me then, does love go on?"

*Large held Small snug as they looked out at the night, at the moon in the dark and the stars shining bright.
"Small, look at the stars – how they shine and glow.
Yet some of those stars died a long time ago.
Still they shine in the evening skies...*

love, like starlight, never dies."
